We Have Not

said anything as yet about REFRIGERATORS, thinking it was like advertising skates in July. At the same time we have a nice line, and have been selling them all through the month of March. We consider ourselves lucky in getting our first installment of about 50 delivered, as the manufacturers of the Baldwin "Dry-Air" are so busy just now, trying to supply the U. S. government, the usual demands from whom at this time, to fit out their new ships, hospitals, barracks, etc., taxes their utmost capacity.

This company has supplied all the Refrigerators used by the government for the last eight years, its commissioners having selected this make from all others, on account of its sanitary qualities.

Refrigeration is quite a study, you will find. If you look this matter up, and it will pay you to do so before buying a cheap, poorly made box, with scarcely any insulation.

J. G. JACKLE & SONS, THOM'S OLD STAND,
73-75 BANK ST., WATERBURY

BROOKLYN BICE,

—There will be an important meeting of Protector Hose Co, No 5, at 8 o'clock this evening.

—The gaudium drew a fair audience for Monday night and it now looks as if the people would turn out much better than last week. An excellent program has been provided for this evening and the supper menu is of the best.

—A large congregation collected at St. Ann's church this morning to witness the double marriage of two popular young couples, which took place at 8 o'clock, and was followed by a nuptial mass, the pastor, Rev. Father Bourne, officiating. The contracting parties were Napoleon Bernier of North Leonard street and Miss Anna Sinnott of Riverside street, and Joseph Sinnott of Riverside street and Miss Clara Lachance of Waterbury. The fathers of the young couples were the witnesses. Mr and Mrs Bernier and Mr and Mrs Sinnott left on the 10:50 train for a wedding tour.

—A large number of residents of the Brooklyn district have requested the man on the Brooklyn briefs to call attention to the alleged persecution of Mrs Michael Harty by a few of her neighbors, who, it is said, appear to be bent upon driving the woman out of her home and thus leaving herself and her helpless family destitute. It is pretty hard to know what to say about a matter of this kind. While it is a well established fact that no one is granted a license to sell liquor on Sunday, still it is equally well known that some are watched much closer than others, and we think, the poorer the dealer, the harder he finds it to make any inroads upon the law. The late Michael Harty was persecuted by a few of his neighbors while standing on the brink of the grave and it would seem that after he was laid where we all must some day lie—in the silence of the tomb—that his enemies would bury the axe and allow his widow and children to live on in peace. But it would seem that this has not been done, and that Mrs Harty and her five small children must face the foe who rendered the last days of the husband and father miserable. The "Democrat" reporter never was in the Harty place on Sunday and has no knowledge of how business is conducted there, but judging by what he can learn from indifferent parties, it is pretty certain that nothing has occurred there either before Mr Harty's death since to call for the interference of any one in order to protect the public peace. It might not be amiss to state, too, that the officials who raided the place the other night are not as much to blame as some of Mrs Harty's friends seem to think. The source of the whole trouble, we have been informed, is due to a determination on the part of a few neighbors to compel the proprietor to observe the letter of the law and if Mrs Harty would be advised by the writer of this item, and he wishes her well, she will conduct her business that way even her worst neighbors will not be able to gratify their spleen upon her. No one can form any idea of the depths an ungenerous foe will descend to in order to worry a real or imaginary enemy, and it is pretty safe to state that few people have gone through life without having some bitter reminders of the vicious acts of people whom fate ordained they should rub against in their journeyings through this "valley of tears."

Officers Offer Their Services.

London, April 19.—Gen. Marcelo d'Azara, the former Minister of War and Prime Minister, has, a special dispatch from Madrid says, arrived at the Spanish capital in order to attend the meeting of the Cortes. He is quoted as declaring that war is inevitable. Many Swedish, Brazilian and other foreign officers are offering their services to Spain. The next meeting of the Spanish Cabinet will discuss the question of privateering. Leaflets inciting a popular demonstration have been seized at Madrid.

Would Not Recall Polo.

London, April 19.—The Madrid correspondent of the Morning Post claims to know that if both houses of Congress adopt the resolution which has passed the House of Representatives, Senator Polo will not be recalled from Washington, the Government believing that the powers will still find an issue out of the difficulty.

Old Fighters in Commission.

Philadelphia, April 19.—Two more of the old monitors, the Montauk and Lehigh, went into commission at the League Island Navy Yard yesterday. Neither of the old fighters has a full complement of men, but both are expected to complete their crews in a day or two. The Lehigh and Montauk are expected to sail tomorrow or Thursday, the former for Boston and the latter for Portland, Me. The Catskill, which went into commission on Saturday, is expected to sail for Boston today.

Buffalo Bill's Cowboys to Fight.

Washington, April 19.—General Miles has accepted the services of Colonel William F. Cody in the event of war with Spain. Colonel Cody—or Buffalo Bill, as he is best known—will be placed in charge of the cavalry scouts who will accompany the United States infantry to Cuba. His command will be largely made up of cowboys from the southern tier of the Western States and a few trained Ogalalla and Brule Indian scouts.

Treasury Clerks May Enlist.

Washington, April 19.—Secretary Gage has issued a circular in which he states that, in case any officer, clerk or employe in the Treasury Department desires to leave the service temporarily to enlist in case of war, he may be reinstated at any time within one year. Temporary appointments will be made to fill places so vacated, with the understanding that upon the return of the employe the temporary clerk will be removed.

Shot Dead in Court.

Danville, Ky., April 19.—While court was in session in Danville Court house yesterday, Francis Kerr, a German farmer, was shot five times and instantly killed by George Rowsey, a neighbor with whom he had quarreled. Rowsey was drunk.

To Make 1,000 Pairs of Boots.

JACQUES OPERA HOUSE
"Sowing the Wind."

Sydney Grundy's "Sowing the Wind" will be the attraction at the Jacques on Wednesday evening, April 20. This play, which is the third year of its career, has been talked about and written about more than any other dramatic composition of recent years. Its story is one of marvelous interest and is told in a most fascinating way and the plot is developed so skillfully that the audience is kept eager and alert from the opening scene to the fall of the curtain. The play is splendidly staged and the costumes, especially those of Rosamond, are described as magnificent. Prices 25, 35, 50, 75 cents; sofas, $1.

"A Day and a Night."

In the comedies of Charles Hoyt the musical part of the evening's entertainment is always a special feature. He never presents a medley of tunes that has been played on every hand-organ, but instead gives the public continually something new, as well as catchy. In his new comedy, "A Day and a Night," a special effort has been made to make what the author terms the "musical menu" an attractive one. It has been prepared by Messrs Richard Stahl, Safford Waters and A. B. Sloane, while the lyrics are by Hoyt and others. At Jacques Friday evening.

POL'S THEATER.
"Cumberland, '61."

Seats went on sale this morning for "Cumberland, '61," the great war drama which is to be presented at Pol's on Thursday evening. There was a great demand for seats, and a large house is assured. The war fever has intensified interest in this most popular of the dramas built around the war of the rebellion, and it is certain that when the curtain goes up there will be an enthusiastic lot of Americans in front. It is a great cast that will present the play, including E. L. Davenport, Frank L. See, John E. Kellard and Miss Amelia Sommerville, insuring a thoroughly artistic production. Prices are 25, 35, 50, 75 cents and $1.

SUWANEE SPRING WATER
GOOD FOR MANY OF THE ILLS OF THE HUMAN FAMILY.

The Charming Locality Described By The Rev. Father O'Donnell—A Place Where One Can Live in Retirement or Enjoy Social Life—Jacksonville, the Ideal City of the South.

Suwanee Springs is 170 miles southwest from Savannah and ninety miles west from Jacksonville. It is an ideal place for a vacation that means rest. The atmosphere is heavily charged with a sulphurous odor which the springs exhale as well as with the fragrance of the pine trees in which the state of Florida abounds. The place is called "Nature's Sanitarium." These wonderful cures have been wrought there is beyond cavil. During our stay we saw men, grievously tormented with rheumatism in its most virulent form, throw aside their canes and walk as if they had not walked for years. Diseases of the kidneys also succumb here to the waters of the springs. A necessary condition for a cure is the constant and unlimited drinking of the water; and it is a marvel how much of it one can dispose of. A common allowance before breakfast is a dozen glasses and some of the guests who were afflicted with various ailments were able to drink as much as sixty glasses a day, and fifty glasses of Suwanee Springs water will produce neither distraction nor distention.

The system of living in vogue there is simply charming. There is the main hotel building with its commodious office, music and billiard rooms, to which all the guests repair for meals. The house has many spacious private apartments for guests who elect to lodge there. Besides this main building there are twelve cottages prettily arranged about the grounds, each one containing two large, well lighted and thoroughly ventilated apartments, each apartment having its old fashioned and cheerful looking fire place. Here the guests, who choose this manner of living, sleep and spend their time during the day, if so inclined. It is this cottage system that makes Suwanee Springs so home-like. If so disposed we can become a veritable recluse and while the hours away in calm and peaceful rest and in sweet communion with nature for the entire day, the mind rests in a meditative mood. On the other hand, if one is given to social pleasures he may join one of the many card parties that is a feature of the place, or listen to sweet, vocal and instrumental music, or even talk war with as much sense and reason and intelligence as the average patriot displays elsewhere. Cheap patriotism is found nowhere so well as up here, and patriots were here unheeded who charge that Spain ought to be whipped for no other reason than that "we ought to lick somebody" in order to keep the effluvia of the world from treading on the tail of your Uncle Samuel's coat.

From Suwanee Springs we visited Jacksonville and St. Augustine. The former city was an agreeable surprise in every respect. I had heard and read much of Jacksonville and was in a measure prepared for much, but not for what I actually saw. It is one of the cleanest cities I ever visited. Nearly all the streets are paved with vitrified brick and are kept as clean as a new pin. Cleanliness there is an imperative necessity, owing to the city's proximity to the yellow fever districts; but so clean is the city and so perfect is the system of sewage that but little fear is apprehended from yellow fever this year. Evidences of northern civilization are everywhere visible in Jacksonville. For streets and room improvements this city is bonded for a million of dollars, but it is a million of dollars well invested. The city will reap advantages more than commensurate with the outlay, and time has justified the action of the municipal government in going so heavily into debt. Jacksonville is not only as clean as Waterbury, but it can teach the Brass City many lessons in cleanliness. It is far ahead of it in all that goes to make a progressive city. And yet many of us are apt to look askance at the cities of the south. Jacksonville is evidently a city that does things.

While in Jacksonville, we were met by Father Curtin and myself can bear witness. Here we met Mr Lewis Carder, formerly of the Waterbury American and Sunday Globe. We treasured considerably upon his time and patience, but his welcome was cordial and his hospitality so genuine that we with feelings of sincere regret that we were compelled to bring to a close a visit that will ever remain a cherished memory.

SIR CHARLES DILKE'S VIEWS.
Says the United States is Sure to Win in the End.

London, April 19.—Sir Charles Dilke, Radical member of Parliament for the Forest of Dean, Division of Gloucestershire, is quoted in an interview on the Spanish-American crisis as expressing the opinion that the two opposing fleets are about evenly balanced, adding: "Therefore, the decisive action will be fought at sea. If the Americans win the war will be over. If Spain wins it will be the beginning of a long struggle, which must end in the crushing defeat of Spain."

Continuing, Sir Charles Dilke ridiculed the idea of the Spaniards shelling cities, pointing out that it would be no advantage to Spain for her to do so. He expressed the opinion that both sides should be allowed access to British coaling stations, allowing twenty-four hours to elapse between the departure of one nation's ships and the arrival of their enemy to coal. He also said that he anticipated considerable trouble from the chaotic state of international law, announced that his sympathies were with the United States, and explained that the United States was quite right in interfering in Cuba, adding, "Although I pity the grand old empire of Spain, which is crumbling."
